The Immortality of Childhood: Adventures of a Boy Called James Cian McCarthy

A Future Classic of Children's Literature is Born

"The Immortality Of Childhood: Adventures of A Boy Called James" deals with the fantastic and unique tale of James Wilkinson, a normal 12-year-old boy, who embarks on a series of adventures that transform even the most ordinary of days into ones that will live in his memory forever.

Join him as he encounters the King of All Birds, attends a bizarre lecture from a crackpot Professor, gets tried for his life in an underground seaside court, visits the rebellious and riot-prone Railway Club, trespasses on a country manor house with the 1st Battalion... and a whole lot more besides, as the book progresses towards its epic finale... where a perilous Enemy awaits.

Delighting readers of all ages, this is a charming little book that has all the hallmarks of a classic.
