Hamid rubbed the light from his eyes and looked again. He was not dreaming; it was his stepfather!

The man watched Kinza as a snake might watch a baby rabbit at play, waiting for the moment to strike. And for one breathless moment Hamid was sure that he would reach out and snatch her away. Hamid does not want his little blind sister, Kinza, to be sold to a beggar by their stepfather, so he decides to rescue her. Together they escape from their mountain village to a town where there may be a new home for Kinza. But this is only the start of their adventures.

Will Kinza be safe? What will happen to Hamid, who dares not go back home? Set in North Africa, readers will be delighted by yet another of Patricia St. John's exciting, freshly edited novels.

As a university student exactly feel bored to help reading. If their teacher questioned them to go to the library as well as to make summary for some publication, they are complained. Just little students that has reading's soul or real their passion. They just do what the teacher want, like asked to the library. They go to there but nothing reading seriously. Any students feel that looking at is not important, boring as well as can't see colorful photographs on there. Yeah, it is to become complicated. Book is very important for yourself. As we know that on this time, many ways to get whatever you want. Likewise word says, ways to reach Chinese's country. Therefore , this Star of Light (Patricia St John Series) can make you sense more interested to read.
