Fully cross-referenced, the Companion describes and assesses the musical conventions, instrumental music, intonation, embellishment, and tala and rhythm among a host of other topics, and includes detailed biographical notes on composers and musicians. The highly accessible and insightful Preface provides a broad outline of the subject and sensitizes readers to the intricacies of Carnatic music.

The rich artwork—comprising more than 100 photographs, colour plates and drawings by S. Rajam, illustrations by V.C. Arun, and staves—add to the appeal of the volume.
