Dominating Devney (Montana Maiden Series Book 3) Vanessa Vale

Widow Devney Jenkins needs to remarry, and quickly. Not only is she sought after for the vast ranch her husband left her, but remarkably, she's still a virgin. She's quite a prize for any money-grubbing bachelor. She married her first husband out of sheer desperation and it got her seven years of isolation and loneliness. It was not something she wished to repeat and decides to forge her own path, to take control of her life. But with the strict rules regarding the protection of women, that was impossible in Liberty, Montana, and she learns them firsthand.

Cowboy Sam Bridger takes one look at Devney Jenkins and decides his bachelor days are over. He doesn't need Devney's land or money; he wants her maidenhead. No other man will touch her. She is his. The only person that stands in the way of this is Devney herself. Sam needs to take control of Devney's body in order to sway her mind toward marriage. Once achieved, his full domination of her body begins. Devney doesn't give in easily and must learn through sound spankings and pleasurable and very carnal rewards that being under Sam's control is everything she's ever wanted.

Author's Note: The Montana Maidens series contains scenes of intense male domination and female sexual subjugation. For those who may find this objectionable, please read my other series and books as this series is the only one that contains these intense themes.-- Vanessa
