A Small Tale Which Will Inspire You to Follow Your Heart and Fulfill Your Dreams

Do you know that you are powerful and strong? Have you ever thought that you have all the potential to realize your biggest dreams? Were you aware that you can be, do and have whatever you can imagine?

With a newly bought backpack, three hundred dollars, no plans and one-way ticket, young explorer Dmytro Ivanov embarked on a six-month journey to India to get answers for his questions. Adventures and challenges followed: hitchhiking on one of the most dangerous roads in the world, trekking along the borders of Pakistan and Tibet; practicing a ten day course of silent meditation in the Himalaya mountains; attending teachings with his Holiness the 14th Dalai Lama; building a vertical garden from recycled soda bottles to grow vegetables for Tibetan refugees, and even working as a doorman at Indian weddings.

Dmytro transforms all his experience and knowledge into a fable about a fictional character named John Scotland. Whatever author has learned during his journey to the East, whatever secrets and mysteries saints, gurus, and sages have revealed to him, you will learn all these in less than 40 minutes, following uplifting path of John Scotland page by page.

By reading this book you will find answers on the most complicated questions of nowadays:

- How to find your true self and pave your own path?
- How to find your life's goals and get motivated to reach them?
- How to fulfill your biggest dreams and start doing great things that matter to you?

Inspired by a real life adventure, this story will take you on a journey that will open your mind and free your spirit to achieve your cherished dreams. Following your heart in search of what you love is marvelous path. Believe in yourself and believe in your dream. Because people with dreams, people with passion, can change the world for the better.
