The old adage of opposites attract is certainly true of Jill and Stuart Briscoe. He is a pragmatic, nuts-and-bolts man; she a visionary, with a heart for people. From the beginning, these two personalities have had much to learn about each other. Married for Life brims with delightfully funny and poignant stories of everything from the first time they met to the heart-to-heart talks of their engagement and the celebrations of the honeymoon. But that didn't end the surprises. Throughout the seasons of changing ministries, jobs, and raising three children. God has taken them from one continent to another and, step by step, into the richness of faithful, growing love.
