Since its creation in 1980, "Free Inquiry" magazine has been the leading voice of secular humanism. In the pages of "Free Inquiry" you can encounter today's great humanist thinkers as they investigate new areas of human understanding, tackle social and ethical dilemmas, and explore the challenges of living without religion. "Imagine There's No Heaven: Voices of Secular Humanism" introduces you to some of these thinkers, with eleven articles and interviews from recent issues of "Free Inquiry." It is hoped that these pieces will provide an enjoyable and thought-provoking introduction to the breadth and depth of secular humanist thought.
