Have you ever wondered what the Bible teaches about the end-times? Many modern prophecy experts paint an imminent vision of doom and gloom through the rise of the Antichrist, a one-world government and coming global disasters. But are these things really going to happen? And more importantly, is this what Jesus had in mind when he spoke about the end? In this book, A.J. takes an in-depth look at the teachings of today in light of other books of the Bible and the original context in which some of the more famous words of prophecy were spoken. When will Jesus return? What is the mark of the beast? Who is the Antichrist? And where will the battle of Armageddon take place? In You, Armageddon and the Kingdom of God you will find solid answers to these questions and more. Many people wonder if the Antichrist is right around the corner. But the truth is things aren't as bad as they appear. Contrary to popular thinking, God has an optimistic vision planned for earth's future. And as you come to see the grandeur of his working in the world, you will be challenged to understand the truth of Christ's current reign on the earth as you embrace his purpose for you in his kingdom.
