11th Hour Miracles!: Surviving a Bone Marrow Transplant Analisa Marquez O'Rullian

The need for an inspiring account of the bone marrow transplant process is great! Analisa's incredible story will leave many to consider the value of spiritual strength as a means for facing life's unpredictable challenges. "While myriad books treat survival from a medical standpoint, 11th Hour Miracles! does so from a unique viewpoint involving religious faith," says New York Times best-selling author Ellen Tanner Marsh, "...an approach that sets her account far apart from similar ones." "It is a moving experience that will help others understand what we transplant doctors see every day, namely the extraordinary strength of the human spirit." -- Stephen D. Nimer, M.D. Analisa's amazing story includes the miraculous blood match of her missionary brother living 3,000 miles away in Peru, the tremendous setbacks she undergoes, and the triumphs that finally lead to a full and complete recovery. She reveals how love, faith and the medical staff at UCLA really do bring about 11th hour miracles!
