When Eve agrees to go to Ireland to run a quaint bookshop for her friend, she figures those two months will be a dream come true. She doesn't expect to find that her friend has been called away for a family emergency, leaving her to sort out someone screaming upstairs, a crazy dog, a mouthy parrot or an utterly handsome man with a broken ankle, who has taken up residence on the main floor. And now, Eve is in the holiday she will never forget.
