Whirlwinds & Small Voices: Sustaining Commitment to Work with Special-Needs Children Amy McConkey Robbins, Clarence McConkey

Whirlwinds & Small Voices is written as a seven-day discipline to inform, inspire, and renew those who care for children with special needs - including parents and families, clergy and congregations, teachers, therapists, and members of the medical profession. This book is rich with stories of real life children, real life parents and families, and the work of therapists and technicians who know the path to the world of growth, fulfillment, and spiritual development for children. Be inspired, challenged, and informed as you read about specific, tested practices. You will not only become better equipped in your capacity to care for children with special needs, but will also learn how you can become a part of a wider fellowship of hope and healing.
