Foster: Aging in and out of the system of care James N. Davis

Foster is the name of this aging young man that shares his experiences of his journey from home to home. Foster seems to live from day to day never knowing how his life will end up. Join me in learning what Foster has to go through to reach his 18th birthday. In this book, Foster will share most of his experiences from the age 5-9 years old. The next book he will share his experiences as a pre-teen (10-15 years old). The final book of this three book series, Foster will share what happens as he worms his way through the system from the age 16-18 years old.
