At the Cop's Mercy 2: Lockdown Eliza DeGaulle

She hates the only man who can truly fulfill her lust...

A new job, a new home, Claire has everything she wants out of life - but she can't help thinking about that one fateful night she was roughly ravished by an officer of the law - who also happened to be her old high school sweetheart.

When her job calls her back to that officer's jurisdiction, she finds herself in handcuffs again, thrown in a cell, and facing punishment. At the prospect of being used by two dirty cops, she struggles with the fact that she should hate everything they're doing to her, but is instead yearning for every touch and violation they can bring, begging for more as her old beau still refuses to pull out.

7,000 words.
