Modern researches in Child Development realize that there is presently a very strong move of institutions and commercial establishments that target the children and play a big role in their intellectual and emotional development. Most of these influences are chiefly stumbling blocks to sin. They lure the kids into a world-trap of unethical and confused lifestyle. The negligence of parents to guard and discipline the kids due to false concepts introduced by some psychologists in the postmodern decades has made more room for havoc as far as child development is concerned.

CHILD DEVELOPMENT is one attempt to provide some important tools in understanding the position of a child in God's Kingdom, family, society, and nation. It contains four essays, a mini-article, and a couple of poems that deal with such topics. It deals with issues such as Parenting, Education, Cognitive Development of Child, Children at Risk, and Child Theology
