Dust tracks on a road;: An autobiography Zora Neale Hurston

Biography Large Print Edition Delightful . . . wise . . . full of humor, color, and good sense. Saturday Review of Books This very personal portrait that Hurston paints of herself offers a rare, poignant, and often audacious glimpse of the public and private persona of a writer, artist, anthropologist and champion of black heritage. Dust Tracks on a Road is full of wit and wisdom about a proud and spirited woman who started off low and climbed high, taking her place among the leading artists and intellectuals of the Harlem Renaissance.
