Pegan has changed into something she doesn't understand and has been pulled into a war she isn't sure she wants to be apart of. Everything has changed... or has it? Pegan's past has come to find her and nothing is as it seems. When she meets a sarcastic hunter that is dead set on killing her new allies, she has to come to terms with her past life's decisions and mistakes. If she doesn't, it could destroy everything she and her friends are trying to accomplish. She has to find a way to deal with her heart's faults while taking the queen's constant blows... How will Pegan survive if she can't even trust her own heart?

Kaitlin is a twenty year old author who lives in Tampa, Florida. She has a husband and a daughter who she tries to inspire by showing that she isn't afraid to work for her dreams. Kaitlin has been writing since she was about eight years old, and she has traveled all across the south of the United States to find different styles of writing, talking, and living for her stories.
