Bosnia Journal: An American Civilian's Account of His Service with the 1st Armored Division and the Russian Brigade in Bosnia?, by James Nelson James Nelson

The 1st Armored Division formed the core of Multinational Division North to keep the peace in Bosnia in 1996. A Russian brigade was part of that effort. I was personal interpreter to Major General William L. Nash in his dealings with the Russian commander, and I was stationed at HQ Russian Brigade for that purpose. I also interpreted for many others, both civilian and military, developing close relationships with both Russian and American personnel. This is the first publication of the journal that I kept while there.
