Early Works Of Dr. Seuss - Volume 1 Theodor Seuss Geisel

The subject matter within this book varies wildly, from undeniably Soussian creatures used to sell auto parts to scaring political cartoons dealing with American policy during World War II. His political cartoons capture the volatility of the 1930s and 40s. With Geisel unapologetically weaving his opinion into every panel he drew. Although some of his cartoons from this era do not conform to today's standards of political correctness, they have been included in this book to preserve intellectual honesty.
