The Gift of the Anointing of the Sick: A Preparation Guide for the Sacrament Mary Kathleen Glavich
The Anointing of the Sick is perhaps the most misunderstood sacrament of the Catholic faith. In The Gift of the Anointing of the Sick, Sr. Kathleen Glavich clears up the misunderstandings about this sacrament and presents it as it actually is: a way that the Church supports and intercedes for those who are sick. In clear and easy to understand language, Glavich explains in detail the beauty and power behind the ritual.

While this book is meant to prepare those receiving the Anointing of the Sick, it will also help their loved ones understand and prepare for what happens during the celebration of the sacrament.

The Gift of the Anointing of the Sick describes: A history of the sacrament; The meanings of its symbols; Different ways it is celebrated; How to prepare for it; Reasons to receive the sacrament; Effects of the sacrament; A question-and-answer section; Suggested Scripture readings and prayers.
